

Order Form
Audubon At Home Guide to
Gardening for Life in Southeastern Pennsylvania

Yes, I would like to order ___ copy(s) of The Guide to Gardening for Life in Southeastern Pennsylvania. Please mail my book(s) to:

Name: _____

Address: _____

City, State, Zip _____

Email: _____

Are you a member of Audubon? Yes No (if yes, what chapter _____)

Please enclose check for $9.95 per book ($7.95 + $2.00 S&H)

Make checks payable to Bucks County Audubon and mail to:

Bucks County Audubon Society
6324 Upper York Road
New Hope PA 18938

Thank you for your order! Please allow 3-6 weeks for delivery.

How did you hear about the book?

- The BCAS Harbinger Newsletter
- Bowman's Hill Wildflower Preserve Twinleaf Newsletter
- The Bucks County Herald
- Bucks County Courier Times
- Philadelphia Magazine "Home and Garden"
- National Audubon Website
- Word of Mouth
- Other, please specify _____

The Bucks County Audubon Society (BCAS) is a private, non-profit organization founded as a chapter of the NAS in 1969. Since its inception, BCAS has been dedicated to conserving wildlife, promoting awareness of environmental problems, watching birds, educating the community about the interdependence of humans and their world, and furthering the wise use of land, air, and water.