

FREE
Family Fun!

5th Annual

2009

Fall Wildlife Festival

&
Plant Sale

Saturday, October 24, 2009 • 9 am to 4 pm

Rain date: October 25, 2009

MITCHELL LAKE Audubon
CENTER

Mitchell Lake Audubon Center, a designated wildlife refuge, is a 1200-acre natural area consisting of a 600-acre lake and 625 acres of wetland, pond and upland habitats that are home to a wonderful assemblage of wildlife including over 300 different bird species. Programming at the Center is specifically designed to focus on educating school children and families, with an emphasis on science education and environmental stewardship.

Thank You Sponsors

Monarch Sponsor: H-E-B

Live Oak Sponsors: The Boeing Company -San Antonio

Pecan Sponsors: AT&T, Bromley Communications, Frost,

Green Haven Industries, Salado Creek Foundation,

San Antonio Convention and Visitors Bureau

Bluebonnet Sponsors: Zachry Holdings, Inc.

Lantana Sponsors: CPS, SACU

Graphic Design Donated by: Zukini

MITCHELL LAKE Audubon CENTER

Join The Fun!

- Plant sale with drought-tolerant & butterfly & hummingbird friendly plants.
- The San Antonio Water System (SAWS) Autumn Bloom Giveaway, featuring free, small water-saver plants
- A raptor show featuring Last Chance Forever
- Snake & reptile exhibit
- Hayrides, guided nature walks, bird tours, "Animal Sound Safari" from Texas Parks & Wildlife
- Plant, gardening & wildlife-oriented lectures presented by SAWS and area experts
- Vendors featuring items for your yard, birding and crafts
- Home Depot's kids birdhouse building/Kids Corner activities
- Relax with hand & back massages from the Aveda Institute San Antonio
- Live Gardening South Texas radio broadcast from Milberger's on KLUP
- Over a dozen educational and activity booths focused on nature & our community
- Raffle with great prizes including a fully installed butterfly and hummingbird garden!
- Local poets present readings on climate change for the 350.org international day of action

Location

10750 Pleasanton Rd.
San Antonio TX, 78221
(210) 628-1639

Directions

Take exit 46 from Loop 410 (Moursund Blvd) proceed south for 0.7 miles. Gate is on the left.

In partnership with San Antonio Water System

www.mitchelllakeaudubon.org