

Boxwood Wreaths, Boxwood Tree Centerpieces, & Boxwood Candle Centerpieces

Nothing lasts longer or smells as good as beautifully crafted fresh boxwood holiday decorations. This year, we are offering our traditional boxwood wreath, boxwood tree centerpiece and boxwood candle centerpiece with three hand-dipped Aullwood beeswax candles. Boxwood is a dark green broadleaf evergreen with shiny oval leaves. It does not shed and as it ages it turns a golden green.

Each wreath is handmade and measures 22" – 24" in diameter. The boxwood tree is in the shape of an evergreen tree and is about 22" – 24" tall.

Boxwood wreaths, boxwood trees and boxwood candle centerpieces may be decorated with white pine cones, yarrow (golden colored everlasting flower), or red berries. The quantities of boxwood are limited this year, so we will fill orders based on the postmark of your prepaid order!

The wreaths and centerpieces will last for several months and are ideal to hang on a mantle or door or place on a table. While quantities last, they may be purchased at the Holiday Art Fair at the Marie S. Aull Education Center on November 28.

Each wreath, tree centerpiece or candle costs $42.95 (sorry, no discounts). Since a limited number of boxwood items will be made, reserve these items by ordering in advance. Special arrangements can be made for earlier pick-up. These items will be held until December 7 unless other arrangements are made. Complete this order form and send a check payable to Aullwood Audubon Center, 1000 Aullwood Road, Dayton, OH 45414.
