

IDENTIFYING FROG & TOAD SOUNDS

at the Corkscrew Swamp Sanctuary

GROUND LEVEL, NEAR WATER

SOUND	FROG/TOAD	WHERE MOST COMMONLY FOUND
loud, pig-like grunt .....	Pig Frog .....	near or in water (water lettuce, plants) rubbing a balloon, low (not soprano) .....	Leopard Frog .....	by water's edge or fallen logs

ON PLANT STEMS, IN TREES & SHRUBS (some can be on ground for short periods of time)

SOUND	FROG/TOAD	WHERE MOST COMMONLY FOUND
quank-quank close, cowbell-like far .....	Green Treefrog .....	on stems, stalks, branches, boardwalk
RAIN: single, high-pitched bark .....	Green Treefrog .....	on stems, stalks, branches, boardwalk rasping snore .....	Cuban Treefrog .....	on stems, buildings, branches
nasal trill like an angry goose .....	Squirrel Treefrog .....	on stems, stalks, leaves, branches
RAIN: like an angry squirrel fussing at something .....	Squirrel Treefrog .....	on stems, stalks, leaves, branches like typing, morse code, or castanets .....	Pinewoods Treefrog .....	high in tree tops single bell-like note, like a seal barking .....	Barking Treefrog .....	(rarely present at Corkscrew)
RAIN: loud barking sound .....	Barking Treefrog .....	(rarely present at Corkscrew)

GROUND LEVEL, DRIER AREAS

SOUND	FROG/TOAD	WHERE MOST COMMONLY FOUND
sheep-like .....	Narrow-mouthed Frog .....	around or under logs (eats ants & termites)
soft, musical cricket-like chirp .....	Greenhouse Frog .....	under logs, debris high raspy trill, finger rubbing teeth of small comb .....	Florida Chorus Frog .....	under logs, debris low rasping snore, or woodpecker drumming .....	Gopher Frog .....	hides in burrows in day, heard night only like a tinkle of glass, so high-pitched almost inaudible .....	Little Grass Frog .....	clings to grass blades cricket-like, or 2 marbles knocking against each other .....	Florida Cricket Frog .....	clings to grass blades chick-like .....	Oak Toad .....	grass, fallen twigs and leaves musical trill, like a cicada .....	Southern Toad .....	grass, fallen twigs and leaves like immature crow complaining (kahn - kahn) .....	E. Spade Foot Toad .....	grass, fallen twigs