THE ECONOMIC IMPACT OF RIVERS, LAKES, AND STREAMS IN ARIZONA

1.5 Million residents participate in outdoor recreational activities on or along waterways in Arizona.

$13.5 Billion dollars generated annually from recreation on or along rivers, lakes, and streams in Arizona.

114,000 Jobs in Arizona are supported by outdoor recreation on waterways.

Graham County

$100 Million dollars generated annually from recreation on or along rivers, lakes, and streams.

900 Jobs in the state are supported by outdoor recreation along Graham County's waterways.

29,000 Arizona residents participate in outdoor recreation on or along waterways in Graham County.

PARTICIPATION IN OUTDOOR RECREATION

- Picnicking/Relaxing: 996,000
- Trail Sports: 684,000
- Fishing: 584,000
- Water Sports: 577,000
- Wildlife Watching: 571,000
- Camping: 563,000
- Biking: 353,000
- Hunting/Shooting: 166,000
- Snow Sports: 54,000

13,000 enjoy wildlife watching
10,000 enjoy fishing
9,500 enjoy camping

audubon.org/westernwater